

2010-2011 Holy Angels – Immaculate Conception Uniform/Dress Code

UNIFORMS

Uniform clothing has no visible brand name logos, and to ensure consistency in dress and quality, uniforms must be purchased from the approved uniform suppliers listed. Please make sure that all pants and tops are free from logos, lace trim, or other embellishments. Clothes from suppliers other than those listed are frequently a different shade of blue or are noticeably styled differently. Written communication may be sent home when discrepancies are noticed regarding the uniform code.

During the winter season students must have a pair of boots to wear outside and those boots cannot be worn in the classroom. Questions often arise regarding the wearing of "Ugg style" boots and "hiking style" boots (both of which are "casual boots" as opposed to "dress boots" as the policy states). We ask the following: 1. If Ugg style boots are worn inside the building pant legs must be worn outside of the boot and the student must have something to wear outside. 2. If hiking type shoes are worn inside of the building, the student must have something else to wear outside.

UNIFORM NONCOMPLIANCE

If there is a valid reason for your child to be out of uniform on any given day, please send a note of excuse. If your child is out of uniform and does not present a note of excuse, the child will be sent to the office to change into uniform clothing provided by the school or call home for a parent to bring uniform clothing.

GRUB DAYS

Grub days are days when children may wear jeans, sweatshirts, T-shirts, shorts, (when the weather is appropriate) and other types of "dress-down" clothing. Proper consideration must be given to the mission of a Catholic school in the selection of clothing or particular lettering or logos. Inappropriate or immodest clothing cannot be tolerated (no spaghetti straps or tank tops). Should questions arise, it will fall solely to the principal's discretion to determine what is acceptable and what is not. Grub days typically fall on the 3rd Friday of the month. Students are asked to bring twenty five cents on grub days, which will be donated to the designated monthly charity.

LOST AND FOUND

Lost items are put in the "Lost and Found" box in the hallway and may be reclaimed there. Such articles will be held for the semester and then given to a charitable organization. Children finding possessions of others are asked to turn them in at the office. Please mark all clothing, especially tennis shoes, mittens, gloves, hats and jackets. Our lost and found occasionally reaches gigantic proportions!
