

GTACS Parent Teacher Council (PTC) Volunteer Opportunities Winter 2009 – 2010

Parents and supporters like you help make GTACS a top-notch system for our students. The PTC always needs volunteers to keep programs ticking. Below is a brief description of volunteer opportunities available. Many helpers are needed in all categories, so please consider donating a bit of time to further enrich our schools.

Email your response to heidargue@charter.net, or send this completed form to school with your student(s) in an envelope marked "PTC VOLUNTEER FORM." We will contact you with more details about the project(s) you select. Thank you and God bless!

PTC Projects and Descriptions

Please indicate the projects and school(s) at which you would like to volunteer.

Catholic Schools Week

The PTC celebrates our Catholic school system with several special small projects at each school Feb 1-5, 2010. Family Movie Night is a Saturday evening event (Jan 30, 2010) at SF gym and kicks off the week-long celebration.

Volunteers are needed at each school to assist with small projects and with Family Movie Night preparations and staffing during the event.

Oleson's Receipt Program

Perfect for parents looking for at-home volunteer opportunities... GTACS uses money collected from Oleson's toward students' 8th-grade trips. Funds raised by families through the Oleson's program can be saved for up to 10 years.

Volunteer needed to count and track receipts provided by preschool classes. This volunteer role is best if continued year after year by the same individual, tracking the same students as they progress through the grades.
